For some time past articles living in the vicinity of Milwaukee on the C & W railroad have been annoyed by some animal visiting their benighted nests and carrying away their chickens. Last week Mr. James Eagle, who lives on Fudge h h, reported that he had found his nest empty and the nests destroyed the eggs, sucked and some of his chickens carried off, made up his mind to take a one night d d, this week returned home and found his nest empty and his chickens all sprung again, the feathers of some of his chickens, and was of the result. The next week he was again annoyed by the same animal, and greatly surprised as well as pleased to find a large rooster lying dead near the nest. He was so satisfied that the coyote came there off
